NOTE: Since the pool cannot be a party to anything which would distract sitters from their appointed duties, sitters may not swim except to accompany children into the pool in a teaching role. The sitter must be familiar with pool rules, a competent swimmer, and a reliable person. A baby-sitter may supervise a maximum of three children. Members are responsible for the conduct of their children who attend the pool accompanied by a baby-sitter, as well as for the conduct of the selected baby-sitter. It is the member's responsibility to ensure that the pool management has an accurate phone number to reach the parents or authorized individual. Print and complete application form and return to the pool office.
